Biographies

Anne Burns, BSPHarm, RPh

Anne L. Burns, BSPHarm, RPh, is Vice President, Professional Affairs, at the American Pharmacists Association (APhA). She is responsible for the Association's strategic initiatives focused on advancing pharmacists' patient care services in team-based care delivery models, as well as payment for pharmacists' services, collaboration with other health care practitioner organizations, and health care quality. She leads the Association's practice initiatives on pain management and the opioid crisis, and also works on APhA's medication management, medication safety, Health IT, and credentialing and privileging programs. She has served on many medication management, quality, and prescription drug misuse and abuse advisory councils. She currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Pharmacy Quality Alliance (PQA), the National Advisory Board for the National Rx Drug Abuse and Heroin Summit, and the Council for Credentialing in Pharmacy.

Ms. Burns joined APhA in 1997. Prior to APhA, she served on the faculty at The Ohio State University (OSU) College of Pharmacy. She received her BS in pharmacy from OSU and completed the Wharton Executive Management Program for Pharmacy Leaders.

Veronica Vernon, PharmD

Dr. Veronica Vernon received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Purdue University. She subsequently completed a pharmacy postgraduate year one residency at the Indianapolis VA Medical Center and postgraduate year two residency in Ambulatory Care/Education with the VA and Butler University. She is board certified in pharmacotherapy and ambulatory care, in addition to being a North American Menopause Society Certified Menopause Practitioner. After residency training, Dr. Vernon created her own position as the women's health pharmacist at the Indianapolis VA. She has assisted several VA medical centers in expanding the role of pharmacists to include women's health services. In August 2017, she joined the faculty at Butler University. She now focuses on health policy and pharmacy law in her teaching and research. For the past three legislative sessions, she has co-chaired the Indiana Pharmacists Association (IPA) Legislative and Regulatory Council. She is the incoming President-Elect of IPA. Her honors include two teaching awards from Butler, 2016 American Pharmacists Association Distinguished New Practitioner, 2019 Indiana Pharmacists Association Distinguished Young Pharmacist, 2019 American College of Clinical Pharmacy Ambulatory Care Practice Research Network Advocacy Award recipient, and 2021 American Pharmacists Association Good Government Pharmacist of the Year.

Ryan Ades, PharmD, RPh

Ryan S. Ades, PharmD, RPh, is the Director of Experiential Education and an Assistant Professor of Pharmacy Practice at Manchester College of Pharmacy, Natural, and Health Sciences in Fort Wayne, IN. He has twelve years of community pharmacy experience, including nine years with Meijer pharmacy, where he precepted IPPE and APPE students for four years and served as the Intern Coordinator for Meijer Central Region for two years. Ryan is a current co-chair of the Legislative & Regulatory Council for the Indiana Pharmacists Association and the immediate past-president of the Indiana Academy of Community Pharmacy. He also administrates a grant program for NABP District IV focused on driving meaningful, lasting change initiated by pharmacy students, and co-hosts the Pharmacy Preceptor Podcast alongside Dr. Sara Trovinger. His current teaching and scholarship focuses include expanding pharmacy practice and reimbursement for pharmacy services through legislation, developing immersive learning experiences for pharmacy students, and ensuring effective preceptorship of IPPE and APPE students.

Denise C. Fields, PharmD, BC-ADM, FASHP, Dip ABLM/IBLM

Denise C. Fields, PharmD, BC-ADM, FASHP, Dip ABLM/IBLM currently works as an ambulatory care and population health pharmacist, as an employee of Express Scripts, at the Cummins LiveWell Center in Columbus, IN. Dr. Fields received her B.S. in Pharmacy from Butler University and her PharmD from Purdue University. She holds professional certifications in Immunization Delivery, Diabetes Care, Anticoagulation, Medication Therapy Management and Pharmacogenomics. She is also board certified in Advanced Diabetes Management and Lifestyle Medicine.

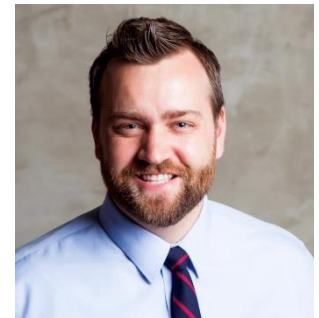

Dr. Fields has experience in various pharmacy practice sites including community (independent and chain), hospital (critical access to teaching sized hospitals) and managed care. She has fulfilled such roles as clinical pharmacist, informatics pharmacist, medication safety pharmacist and Director of Pharmacy. She enjoys using her 30+ years of pharmacy experience to help her client and the patients she serves.

Dr Fields also volunteers in her time off work to advance team-based health care, and to serve as a patient advocate. She currently as the Immediate Past President of the Indiana Pharmacists Association. Prior to these roles, she served as President of the Indiana Society of Health System Pharmacists in 2015 and President of the Indiana Academy of Non-Traditional Pharmacists in 2017. Dr. Fields has served on the Board of Directors for both the Indiana Pharmacists Association and the Indiana Rural Health Association. She has served on Section Advisory Groups for her national professional organization (the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists) for the past 7 years. She recently completed service as co-chair for the Pharmacist Member Interest Group within the American College of Lifestyle Medicine.

Dr. Fields is also a Certified Zumba Instructor, who also loves hiking and kickboxing. In her spare time, you will find her on a trail within a state or national park, spending time on her boat with family and friends, or attending church. She lives in rural Indiana with her husband, and the youngest of her 3 sons.

Bob Chestnut, MD, MOH, Dip ABFM/ABPM

Bob Chestnut, MD, MOH, Dip ABFM/ABPM is the Chief Medical Director at Cummins Inc. Before starting this role for Cummins, Dr. Chestnut was the Primary Care and Occupational Health Medical Director at the Cummins LiveWell Center. Dr. Chestnut earned a BS in Exercise Science at Brigham Young University and a MD at the University of Utah. Dr. Chestnut completed residencies in both Family Medicine and Occupational and Environmental Medicine and earned a Masters of Occupational Health (MOH) at the University of Utah. Dr. Chestnut was also a Quality Improvement Scholar and a Chief Resident at the University of Utah Family Medicine Residency Program. Dr. Chestnut worked as a Visiting Instructor in Family Medicine and as a Medical Director for Grifols Plasma prior to coming to the Cummins LiveWell Center. Dr. Chestnut's passions are in continuous quality improvement, building relationships of trust, and being a health educator. When not at work, Dr. Chestnut spends his time with his spouse and kids either making delicious food to eat at home or exploring the great outdoors.

Amy Harris, RPh, BCPS, CACP

Amy Harris is the ambulatory pharmacy manager for Deaconess Health System and oversees the anticoagulation clinic, medication management clinic, diabetes education center, oncology and infusion pharmacy service, medication assistance program, specialty pharmacy clinical program, embedded ambulatory pharmacy program, and diabetes prevention program. She graduated pharmacy school from Purdue University in 1998 and has board certifications in Pharmacotherapy and Anticoagulation Care. She began her career with Deaconess as a clinical staff pharmacist. In 2006, she operationalized and managed the Deaconess Gateway Hospital pharmacy until 2014. She then transitioned to the ambulatory pharmacy manager role.

Shawn Gibbons

Shawn Gibbons joined Encore Health Network in April 2010. As Vice President of Development, Shawn leads the Sales & Marketing and Network Development/Provider Relations divisions of Encore. Under his direction, Encore has experienced significant membership and revenue growth year over year. Shawn has overseen several initiatives, including a product re-branding and expansion in 2018, and a Workers' Compensation product launched in 2012. Shawn has worked with employers and health systems to develop risk sharing, narrow network customization and other arrangements for health plan offerings. Shawn has more than 20 years of experience in the Indiana managed care market serving the employee benefits and workers' compensation markets.

Shawn is on the board of the Indiana State Association of Health Underwriters (ISAHU) and has served as the state President and state Legislative Chair for ISAHU. He has established industry working groups, including an insurance producer working group and an insurance & business working group. He has received the National Association of Health Underwriters Presidential Citation Award; the ISAHU State Legislative Excellence Award, and the Indiana State Association of Health Underwriters Member of the Year award. In 2008 he was named Honorary Commissioner for the Indiana Department of Insurance by Governor Daniels and Commissioner Atterholt. Shawn received his MBA from Indiana Wesleyan University in 2003 and holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Mankato State University.

Rochelle Forrest Hankins, RN, BSN, MSM

Rochelle Forrest Hankins was nominated in 2019 and 2020 for the Community Health Systems Nurse of the Year award because of her community leadership.

Rochelle received a Bachelor's in Nursing from Indiana University (1984) and a Master's in Management from Indiana Wesleyan University (1993). Since 1984, Rochelle has held a variety of consulting and leadership roles in the Indianapolis nursing community, joining Encore Health Network in November, 2004, as Senior Sales Executive.

"Community" is key to Rochelle's wholistic vision and has inspired her to purposefully be active in multiple community health initiatives. She has the unique ability to combine a 10,000 foot view of a problem but see solutions at the ground level. With great success, she has served as a consultant to employers, third-party administrators, and brokers to create systems that streamline healthcare costs of Indiana employers while reducing fees for the individual.

Rochelle is a continuous learner of new strategies and systems intended to create a healthier Indiana and has studied abroad, attending Business School for Global Entrepreneurs—Malaysia (2012), Cancun (2018), and Thailand 2019.

EMPLOYERS' FORUM OF INDIANA

Addressing the challenges of the local healthcare marketplace

Being a strong community advocate spills over into Rochelle's private life, as she tirelessly refines her talents as speaker, author, transformational coach, TV Show Host, founder of the non-profit Tummies, Minds, and Spirits —for promoting global education for children, and producer of a new children's TV channel BugHub.
